nomination information

You are invited to nominate individuals who demonstrate outstanding leadership, achievement, and contribution in our community. Nominations may be made by an individual, a business or an organization. (No YWCA staff or board member may nominate or be nominated.) Women nominated in past years may be re-nominated.

DEADLINE: All nomination forms must be submitted by midnight on Thursday, March 7, 2019.

Mail to: YWCA Leader Luncheon, 220 East Chicago Street, Elgin, IL 60120 and include nominee's portrait (portrait should be emailed to info@ywcaelgin.org and will be used for the YWCA website, recipient booklet and the day of the event.)

selection process

The recipients of the Awards will be selected by a panel of independent judges. The names of the recipients are announced at the Leader Luncheon. All nominees attending will be introduced and receive a certificate of recognition.

award descriptions and criteria

The Individual Leader Awards are named for area women who have made significant contributions in each award category.

Margaret Hillis Award for the Arts

Nationally renowned Margaret Hillis was the conductor of the Chicago Symphony Chorus for 14 years, music director of the Elgin Symphony Orchestra and a winner of numerous Grammy Awards.

Beatrice Dorsey Award for Business & Professions

A successful local businesswoman for 44 years, Beatrice Dorsey forged the way for other women entering business and professions.

Marguerite Henry Award for Communications & Technology

Author of more than 50 books, many of them children's classics, Marguerite Henry received many prestigious national and international literary awards.

Harriet Gifford and Hattie Griffin Award for Education

An educator, Harriet Gifford established the first school in Elgin in 1836 at the edge of the early American frontier, laying the foundation for later educational systems. Co-founder of the YWCA Elgin, Hattie Griffin was an educator for over 50 years.

Myrtle Spiegler Gerberding Award for Public Service

As the first woman to assume the position of City Clerk of Elgin and designer of the city flag, Myrtle paved the way for women to actively participate in the field of public service.

Betty Brown Award for Racial Justice

As a community leader and activist, Betty Brown laid the ground work for the earliest racial equality movements in Elgin, IL.

Marie Grolich Award for Social Services

An executive director for the YWCA of Elgin for 20 years, Marie Grolich spearheaded many new and innovative social programs benefitting the entire community.

Marjorie Leonard Award for Volunteer & Community Service

As a volunteer and humanitarian, Marjorie Leonard gave countless hours to many individuals, civic organizations and social agencies.
